Although out-manned and out-weighed in every game, the fellows played their hearts out on almost every occasion. Desire and an eagerness to hit made many teams feel fortunate to escape with perhaps only minor injuries after every game. Stand-outs for the team were Tom Frame at fullback, Greg Larson at halfback and quarterback, Alvin Gaule also at halfback and quarterback, Jeff Wood at guard, Mike Routh at center, and Haldean Wilson at end and tackle.

Not only did these boys put forth a supreme effort, they built a nucleus for future teams to add to. With four seniors leaving, much help is going to have to be obtained from next year's freshmen.

Try to get out of this one, Jeff.

These four senior boys saw a lot of action this year. They are Jeff Wood, Alvin Gaule, Tom Frame, and Greg Larson.

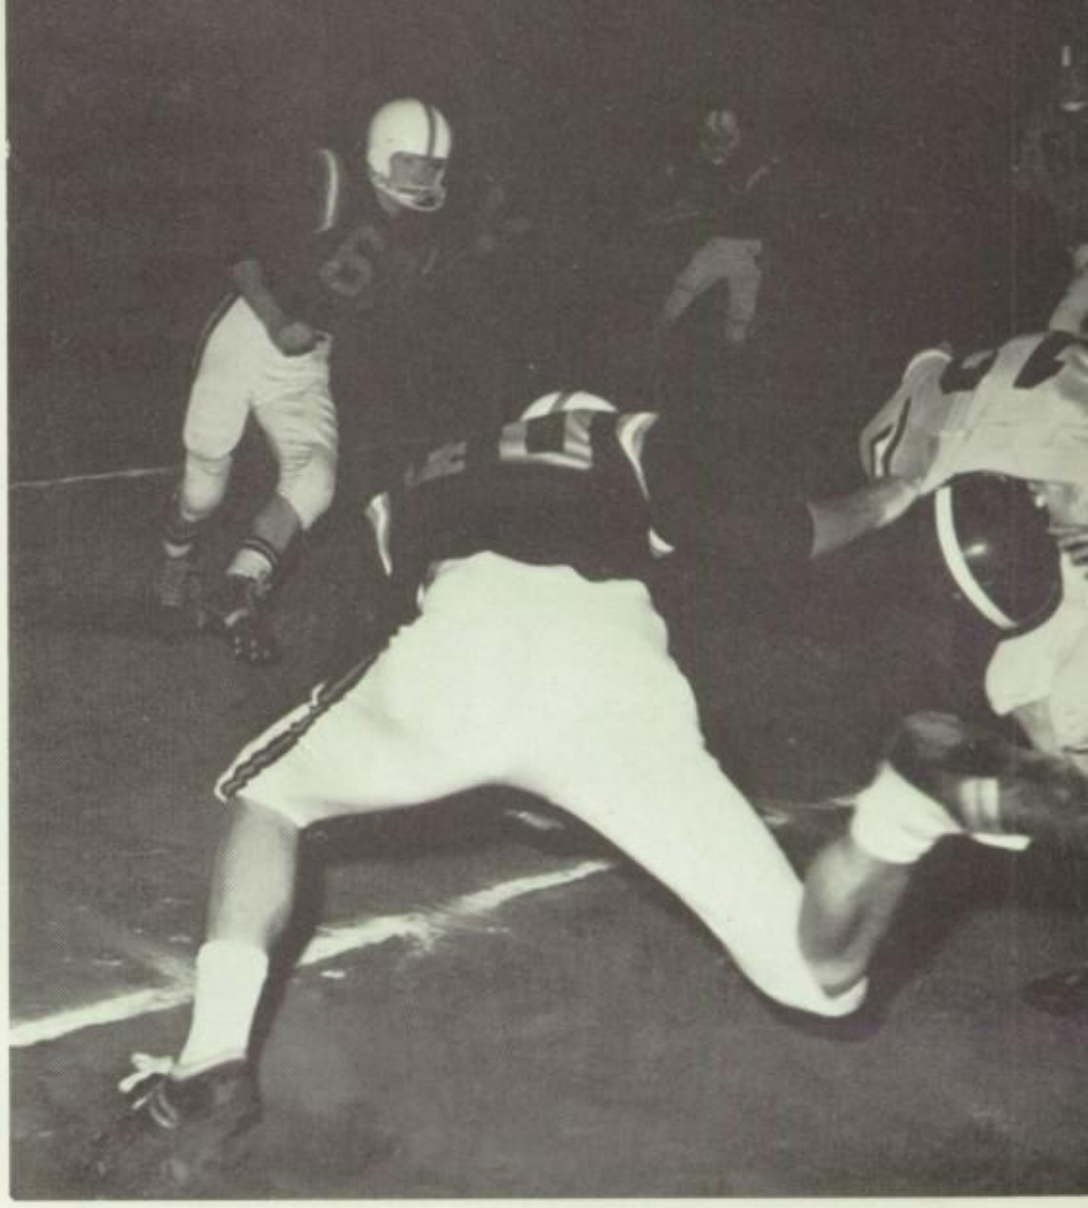
Homecoming

Out of my way!



On the night of September 25, 1969, a solemn procession filed down the blacktop to the school grounds. There they held a bonfire and the cremation of Mervin Murray. The following night Clearfield went down to defeat at the hands of the Murray Mustangs. However, the groovin' spirit of the student body was not hampered, and a swinging dance was held after the game.

Highlights

The Queen and her court consisted of Martha Bennett, Gin Lyddon, Debra Parrish, Queen Markeeta Beggs, Betty Lou Brown, Janice Larson, and Monica McMath. The presentation of flowers was made by Jack Beggs and Lisa Round.

Girls' Basketball

The 1969-70 girl's basketball season was one of excitement and many thrilling moments. With Ginny Lyddon, Barb Whirtmore and Barb Larsen leading the way in the forward court and Colleen Larsen, Lurae Straight, Nancy Jones and Janice Larson in the guard court, the Oriolettes posted a respectable 8-11 won lost record, good for 5th in the conference.

The biggest moment of the year was the new-upset over Grand Valley in the conference tournament. With 3 minutes left in the game. Clearfield was leading by 4 points. However, the ball simply refused to go through the basket from that point on and the Oriolettes lost by 7 points.

Selected to the all-conference team was Ginny Lyddon and Colleen Larsen, the two senior co-captains of a very courageous and hustling team.

Boy's basketball for 1969-70 was one marked by a lack of size and inexperience. Captain Haldean Wilson was the tallest player at 5'10" and Steve Schuelke the smallest at 5'.

The team, never quitting and always giving 100% effort, gained the respect of every team it played. Continually outscored, out rebounded and out manned by every opponent, the Orioles fought until the last horn went off.

Highlights of the season were the improved play of Haldean Wilson, the ball handling of Steve Schuelke and fine performances by Mick Pierce, Bob Abarr and Fred Wilson.

With no seniors on the squad, and some freshmen moving up, the prospects for a good season in 1970-71 seem very good.

Softball

The Oriolettes had a rough season as the team was weak as far as experience is concerned. Debbie Wilson, and Glenna Monk both tried their hand at pitching. Other girls seeing most of the action were Barb Larsen, Gin Lyddon, Sue Siverly, Markeeta Beggs, Deanna Brown, Joyce Davenport and Janice Larson.

The girls ended the year with a 4-1 record. They took fourth place in the conference. Gin Lyddon was named to the all-conference team.

Track

The girls track team this year consisted of Penny Becker, Connie Gordon, Marilyn Bennett, and Dixie Longfellow.

The boys track team consisted of Bob Abarr, Mike Routh, Doug England, and Bill Brown.

The teams competed in a track meet with Prescott and Diagonal at Clearfield and in the conference meet. Penny Becker won ribbons in five divisions–high jump, softball throw, 100 yard dash, 60 yard dash, and discus throwing. Bob Abarr won a ribbon in the 440.

Speech

In her first year of speech, Nancy Jones was very successful in getting a I rating at both district and state contest. Her presentation, "Baby in the Bathroom," was in the humorous category.

The emotionally dramatic speech, "For Jim," was presented by Eileen Brown, who received a II rating at district contest.

Diane Jeter received a I rating in district contest and a II rating at state contest. She entered the dramatic category with her speech, "Honey."

Music Department

For the second year, a drill team consisting of eight members, joined the marching band, adding color to their half-time performances. The drill team captains this year were Debra Parrish and Markeeta Beggs.

Betty Lou Brown was elected drum majorette this year. She and the other four girls led the band through half-time performances and parades.

The girls' chorus participated in Little All-State in Creston and went to Maryville, Missouri, where they heard the Tower Church Choir sing.

Dear

Clearfield Angels.

At 5:00 a.m., Sunday morning, May 3, 1970, eighteen seniors and their sponsors boarded the school bus for their trip to the Ozarks. Our sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. Ron Burson. While there we visited Bagnell Dam, the Bridal Cave, and the Ozark Opry. We also took a two-hour cruise on the Larry Don. Time was found for skiing, swimming, boating, dancing, riding mini bikes, bumper cars, and go carts, and Miniature golf. A weiner roast was held each evening at ten. We returned to Clearfield on Wednesday, May 6. Everyone agreed the trip went too fast but we all had a wonderful time.
